

Certificate of Attendance

Ian Rienewerf of IREMS

Attended an Abrasive Wheel Training for Trainers course on Abrasive Wheel Regulations P.U.W.E.R. 1998 on the 18th December 2007.

Synopsis of course content

Legal requirement for training.
Hazards associated with the use of grinding wheels.
The grinding process, types of abrasive, bonds.
The marking system.
Provision of guards.
Correct selection of grinding wheels including methods of marking abrasive wheels, storing, handling and transporting abrasive wheels.
Methods of inspecting and testing abrasive wheels.
Correct use of flanges and other devices for the safe use of abrasive wheels.
Problem solving in the use of grinding wheels.
Correct procedure for mounting abrasive wheels*.
Machine safety.
The requirements of the regulations.
Written test paper.

* Portable angle grinders and cutting saws using wheels Type 27, 41 and 42 up to 450mm diameter. Bench or pedestal mounted using wheels Type 1 or 5 up to 300mm diameter.

The logo for AbTec, featuring the word "AbTec" in a stylized white font inside a green oval.

Abtec Industries Limited
Unit 4, Venture Court,
Boleness Road, Wisbech,
Cambridgeshire, PE13 2XQ
United Kingdom

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Michael Ring".

Michael Ring
Training Director

Date: 18 January 2008